

ALINA ORTEGA BRIONES

TRAUMA & ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

I am an orthopaedic trauma surgeon at the Hospital Universitario Infanta Cristina.

My subspecialty interest is polytrauma (patients with multiple injuries) and the treatment of pelvic and acetabular fractures.

I have a major interest in postgraduate education. I supervise and mentor medical students and registrars.

I teach and lecture on numerous courses/meetings almost all of which are trauma related.

I work with NGO in Cameroon as part of the COEM project. I am a member of START (Spanish Technical Aid Response Team).

I practice counseling and advice for Spanish medical doctors seeking for a job abroad (Facebook @ jobs4doctors)
